DISPATCH OF BACK UP OFFICERS

- A. When a single officer is dispatched to any incident that may be a threat to the officer's safety, the dispatcher will send a second officer to the incident, either from the same department or another department that is closest to the incident. Additional (officer) response recommendations to certain types of incidents are dictated by each department's policy and have been incorporated into the CAD system.
- B. Officer safety is always a concern for the Communications Center and the dispatchers will make every effort to ensure or confirm their safety.
